

INDEX.

- ÆNEID*, a panegyric on Augustus, 28
Ætius, the Greek physician, 189
Actuarius, the court physician at Constantinople, 190
Aldrovandi, his chapter on the viper, 31
Alexander of Tralles, the physician, 189
Apteryx, its alimentary organs described, 297
Apuleius, author of Golden Ass, 32
Ashby-de-la-Zouch, the divisions of its Coal Field, 9
Asylums for Lunatics, what they were, are, and ought to be, 72
Attendants on the Insane, rules for selecting, 73
Austin, Mr., on the Limestones of Devonshire, 291
Avicenna, the Arabian physician, 41, 198

Balon, its qualities described, 195
Banaud or Plaintain-tree, supposed to be the scriptural mandrake, 40
Banaud, its leaf a mythological symbol, 43
Baths of cold water first employed medically by Antonius Musa, 25
Bees, description of their swarming, 196
Berosus, a notice of him and his writings, 181
Berzelius, extracts from his Annalen der Pharmacie, 167
Betony, Musa's monograph on this herb and its properties, 32
Bigotry directly opposed to all improvement, 118
Biographical Sketches, 189, 197
Birmingham Philosophical Institution, origin of, 97, 99
Birmingham Literary and Philosophical Society, Proceedings of, 160, 322

Blakiston on the diffusion of knowledge in large towns, 83
Bloxam's Principles of Gothic Ecclesiastical Architecture, reviewed, 158
Blyth on the three species of wild geese, 295
Blyth on the class Aves, 296
Browne, Analysis of his Lectures on Lunatic Asylums, 57
Brunfels, Dr. Otto, notice of, and his writings, 197
Burnett's History of his Own Times, judgment of, 132
Butler, Rev. J., his Essay on the National Character of the Romans, 200

Cæsar, Julius, was the first who conferred the freedom of Rome on physicians, 23
Cambrian Rocks in Derbyshire, 12
Camillus, his character defined and admired, 201
Carboniferous group, in Derbyshire, 223
Cato killed himself in a fit of partial insanity, 178
Chalk formation of the north-west of Scotland, 291
Charnwood Forest, and its anticlinal line, 13
Chertsey Literary and Scientific Institution, notice of a Lecture delivered at its opening, 150
Coal Measures in Leicestershire, 8
Coal Measures in Derbyshire, 224
Corn, Theory of its Price at different periods, 78
Couramé, or the Love of Native Country: translated from the French, 104
Covent Garden Theatre, its operatic department, 315
Critical Notices of New Publications, 150, 327

- Crusaders, Song of the, 281
 Cuba, Dr. John, his Garden of Health, one of the earliest herbals, 191
 Cwm Bychan, a legendary tale, 273
 Cytherea, Mr. Gray on the genus of, 302
 Debt, the National, coincidence of its variations with those of the price of wheat, 81
 Derbyshire, the Geology of, 214
 Diluvium, superficial accumulations of, in Derbyshire, 217
 Diluvium or Gravel, in Leicestershire, 3
 Divi Botanici, or Sketches of Botanists, 20, 177
 Dittany, anciently regarded as an infallible vulnerary, 30
 Dodoens, Dr. Rembert, account of, and his botanical "pemptades," 192
 Drury Lane Theatre, the operative department of, 314
 Dry Rot caused by the Fermentation of Ligneous Albumen, 253
 Education, Thoughts on, 114
 Electrical Society, account of Mr. Crosse's Electrical Experiments, 162
 Elizabeth, the Princess, original letter of, 122
 Ervum, note on the plant, 24
 Euphorbia, the plant, first discovered by Juba's physician, 185
 Euphorbus, the physician, 182
 Farey, Mr., on the beds of Toadstone, in Derbyshire, 233
 Fatuity, its progress and kinds, 63
 Feelings, Education of the, 327
 French Literature, history of, 247
 Fruits, on the red colouring of, 170
 Geological Society of London, proceedings of, 290
 Geology of Leicestershire, with section, 1
 Geology of Derbyshire, 214
 Gladiators, the demoralizing exhibitions of, put an end to by the Emperor Constantine, 213
 Gould's Birds of Europe.—Analysis of Parts 13 and 14, 43; Parts 15 and 16, 254
 Gravel or Diluvium of Leicestershire, 3
 Gray on the genus Cytherea, of Lamarck, 302
 Gray on the Formation of Shells, 172
 Gypsum, section of its alternations with the Red Marl at Chellaston, 221
 Haslam, Dr., his singular observation on sanity of mind, 61
 Henry, the Prince, observations on the disease of, 145
 Higgons, criticisms of his writings, 124
 Hopkins, Mr., his tract on the Mountain Limestone of Derbyshire, 233
 Horace, his inquiries about lodgings at a watering-place, 29
 Hume's partiality for the Stewarts censured, 142
 Hungher Hill Mines, section of, 234
 James I., illustrations of his character and conduct, 119
 Japis, the Virgilian prototype of Antonius Musa, 30
 Ick, Mr., Observations on Meteorology, 174
 Idiocy, its gradations, 63
 Insanity, observations on, 76
 ——— its statistics, 76
 ——— notes on the nature of, 238
 Insanity is a corporeal disease, 245
 Jones, Rev. Dr., his lecture reviewed, 150
 Journal, the Edinburgh Medical and Surgical, 343
 Journal, the Phrenological, 340
 Ironstone balls are frequently septarian, 225
 Juba, a popular prince and learned botanist, 180
 Jukes, J. B., his Geology of Derbyshire, 214
 Knowledge, scientific, on its diffusion, 83
 Kyan's method of preserving Timber with a solution of Corrosive Sublimate, 254
 Laser or juice of the Silphium described, 180
 Lead Veins in the Mountain Limestone, 235
 Leaves, on the yellow colour in autumn, 167

- Leaves, red colouring matter in, 171
 Leicester Literary and Philosophical Institution, Proceedings of 162
 Leicestershire, popular sketch of its Geology, 1
 Leicestershire, the bed of an ancient ocean, 15
 Semmens, his Herbal of the Bible, and theory of the Sexes of Plants, 39
 Lettuce recommended to the attention of Malthusian economists, 25
 Lias, in Leicestershire, 5
 Life unites mind and matter in one form of co-existence, 60
 Limestone, the Mountain, of Leicestershire, 10
 Limestone, the Magnesian, of Derbyshire, 222
 Limestone, the Mountain, of Derbyshire, 230
 Linnæus, his rules for botanical denomination, 21
 Linnæus, account of his Philosophia Botanica, 21
 Literature, Outlines of Periodical, 331
 Livingston on the Punishment of Death, 166
 Livy, his character as an historian, 203
 Ludolph, his character, and Ethiopian History, 37
 Lunatic Asylum as it ought to be, exemplified, 76

 Magazine, the London and Edinburgh Philosophical, 335
 Malcolms on the stratification of Elginshire, 291
 Mammatt's Geological Facts quoted, 9
 Man, changes in his mental economy best effected by gradual means, 115
 Martin's Bijou Littéraire, reviewed, 160
 Mattioli, Dr. Andrew, account of, and his botanical writings, 192
 Meleager, the anthologist, 187
 Melissa the plant, 195
 Melissa the princess, 194
 Messue, the Arabian physician, 190
 Meteorology, observations on, and table of, for January and February, 174: for March and April, 351 and 352

 Mendellsohn, his musical compositions characterized, 317
 Milne, account of his Botanical Dictionary, 21
 Millstone Grit of Derbyshire, 227
 Mind and Matter, their co-existence sustained by life, 60
 Miscellaneous Communications,—162
 Monomania, its fourteen different kinds described, 64
 Musa, the physician, his life and writings, 22
 Musa, the physician, his treatment of the Emperor Augustus, 25
 Musa, the plant, its natural and medical history, 35
 Musa, the plant, the Dudaim or Mandrakes of scripture, 36
 Musician about Town, 310

 Natural History, the Annals of, 331
 Natural History, the Magazine of, 345
 Nervous Circulation, 244
 Nicander, a Greek grammarian and physician, 196
 Norague Indians, their manners and costume, 108

 Oath in the romance language, 250
 Opera, the Italian, in London, 312
 Opos, the Greek term explained, 180
 Organic Remains of the Coal Measures and Millstone Grit in Derbyshire, 228
 Organic Remains of the Mountain Limestone, 235
 Oribasius, physician to the Emperor Julian, 189
 Ornithological Society of London, proceedings of, 294
 Ornithology, sketches of European Birds, 43, 254
 Owen, Professor, on the Plesiosaurus, 290
 Owen, Professor, on the alimentary organs of the Apteryx, 297

 Parker, his work on the Stomach reviewed, 155
 Paul of Ægina, the physician, 190
 Patriotism, instances of, amongst the Romans, 201
 Patriotic principles illustrated in a story, 104
 Pedestrian travellers, directions for, 173

- Periodical Literature, outlines of, 331
- Philharmonic Society, its concerts, 316
- Pliny, notes on his Natural History of the World, 24, 33, 35
- Pot Holes in the Red Marl of Derbyshire, 219
- Provençal dialect, its origin, 252
- Punishment of Death, 166
- Psychrolusian System, first methodized by Antonius Musa, 25
- Pythagoras, his enigmatical rule "Abstain from Beings," 182
- Quartz Pebbles, their great abundance in parts of Derbyshire, 218
- Raleigh, Sir Walter, particulars concerning, 136
- Religion a necessary part of education, 117
- Rhazes, the Arabian physician, 42
- Ring of Gold, a badge of nobility among the Romans, 27
- Rheumatism and Neuralgy caused by disorder of the nervous calculation, 244,
- Rocks, aqueous and igneous, with their order of super-position in Leicestershire, 2
- Rocks, the Cambrian system of, in Leicestershire, 12
- Romans, their national character, 200
- Roman character, testimony to, in Jewish history, 210
- Rose, account of his Elements of Botany, 21
- Rousseau's writings, their injurious tendency, 117
- Sabines. the rape of, 204
- Sacred Harmonic Society, its performances, 311
- Sandstone, the New Red, in Leicestershire, 6
- Sandstone, the New Red, in Derbyshire, 220
- Serapion, the Arabian physician, 42, 197
- Sedgwick, Professor, on the Sandstone Rocks of England, 293
- Shale, the Limestone, of Derbyshire, 229
- Shells, observations on the formation of, 172
- Sienite in Leicestershire, 14
- Silvaticus, Dr. M., account of his Medical Pandects, 191
- Smee, Mr., upon the changes of animal matter during its fossilization, 292
- Societies, Proceedings of, 160, 322
- Spartan estimate of good breeding, 201
- Stomach in its Morbid States, by L. Parker, notice of, 155
- Suicide, observations on, 177
- Superstition contributed to the preservation of Literature, 249
- Taylor, Mr. J., on the Quicksilver Mines of Mexico, 293
- Timber, remarks upon the Preservation of, 253
- Toadstone in Derbyshire, 232
- Travellers (Pedestrian) directions for, 173
- Veneration, the innate faculty of, disposes to religion, 116
- Vipers anciently used as food and medicine, 31
- Virgil's Eulogy on Marcellus, 28
- Volcanic Action, its disturbing effects in Leicestershire, 15 and 17
- Voltaire's writings, their demoralizing tendency, 117
- Wallon Dialect, its origin, 252
- Waterhouse, Mr., on Quadrupeds from Fernando Po, 298
- Westmacott, his Scripture Herbal, 31
- Wheals Rake Mine, section of, 233
- Wieland, Dr. Melchior, biographic notice of, 36
- Wills, Mr., his Address to the Birmingham Philosophical Institution, 322
- Wolverhampton Literary and Scientific Society, proceedings of,
- Women, their influence on the ancient Roman character, 207
- Zoological Society of London, proceedings of, 297.

